Acceptance of the Complainant's proposal would upset the General Scheme of the Communal representation in the selection of probationers. With the Exception of 2, the Candidates who have done well in the Civil Services Exam^n are all Probationers. If the next best Candidates from the Last list have to be selected for the Complainant's Post ~~have to be selected~~ not only would it upset the orders already issued in this connection, but also the proportion of Communal representation. In these circumstances the Complainant will be informed that his proposal cannot be agreed to.

SIR,

Referring to my letter No.1138/Es dated 10th March 1936 and to U.O.No.1357/Es dated 20th April 1936 regarding the entertainment of Account Probationers, I have the honor to state that, leaving the Probationer intended for the Railway Department apart, it would be desirable in the higher interest of the Account Department to select as Probationers, the next two or at least two of those who are not fairly far below in rank to those who have been appointed as Probationery Assistant Commissioners by virtue of their pass in the recent Mysore Civil Service Examination and post them to my department if they are prepared to accept the conditions referred to in the Un-official Note. I may, in this connection, refer to the selection made on the occasion of the last direct recruitment to the gazetted cadre of my office of the three Account Probationers from amongst the Civil Service Candidates and state, that that selection has justified itself in the light of their present usefulness to my department. The adoption of this suggestion of mine is calculated to improve materially the tone of work and efficiency of outturn in my department.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A N Raghavachar
